

NEW YORK BOROUGHES & LONG ISLAND

South Slope's VUE Opens With 80 Percent Of Residences Sold

After just eight months of sales, VUE officially opened in April and has reached the 80 percent sold milestone. The astounding sales at the South Slope development can be attributed to the building's great value proposition, amazing views, and prime location.

Developed by Fairmont Capital and the Katan Group, with exclusive sales and marketing by Aguayo & Huebener 5th Avenue, VUE combines elegant features and finishes with breathtaking views of the entire New York City skyline, the Statue of Liberty, the Verrazano Bridge, New Jersey, and Staten Island to create a modern home in the burgeoning South Slope neighborhood.

“Vue offers a tremendous value proposition in a thriving neighborhood that is steps from some of the best restaurants, shops, and activities that Brooklyn has to offer,” said Brendan Aguayo, director of business development of Aguayo & Huebener 5th Avenue.

“Vue offers a tremendous value proposition in a thriving neighborhood that is steps from some of the best restaurants, shops, and activities that Brooklyn has to offer,” said Brendan Aguayo, director of business development of Aguayo & Huebener 5th Avenue.

Designed by Karl Fischer Architects and Lessard Design Associates, the chic 10-story new construction building boasts 45 one-, two-, and three-bedroom residences ranging in size from 671 sq ft to 1,168 sq ft. The remaining homes are priced from approximately $515,000 to $890,000 and are ready for immediate occupancy.